Papers of Martin Cardew

1964-1988

Papers compiled by the athlete Martin Cardew. The collection comprises a number of athletics programmes; papers relating to the Midland Veterans' Athletic Club (MVAC) and other athletics organising bodies; and a small amount of correspondence. Some material relates to Harborne Harriers as well as Halesowen Athletic Club.

Administrative history: Martin H. Cardew was born in 1927, the son of William and Cynthia Cardew (nee Scott) and his birth was registered in the borough of Woolwich. His elder brother Kenneth was born in 1924 and his mother was the niece of Sir John Murray-Scott (1847-1912). Murray-Scott was the secretary to the English art collector, and founder of 'The Wallace Collection', Sir Richard Wallace (1818-1890). Letters sent to Murray-Scott and Wallace from members of the British Royal Family can be found at MS176.

Martin Cardew was a one-time member of Harborne Athletic Club but resigned in October 1970 due to the club's inability to raise teams for various championships held during the previous two years. He subsequently joined Halesowen Athletic Club. He was a past president of the Midland Road Walkers Association and held the dubious distinction of being the last man to finish in the final staging of the Tipton to Bridgnorth Road Relay, 1974. In professional life he was a former lecturer in the School of Chemical Engineering at the University of Birmingham.

Athletics programmes

1964-1979

Small collection of athletics programmes organised by local clubs or regional organisations in the United Kingdom. There is heavy coverage from the Midlands including events held in Leicester, Smethwick and Wolverhampton. There are also a small number of programmes relating to events held further a field in Trowbridge, Gloucester, Norwich and Beverley. The collection focuses on track and field meetings and road racing although there are a small number of programmes which relate to cross-country meetings. Some programmes have been personally annotated with placings and timings. Most programmes include names of officials, lists of competitors, timetable of events and some include details of previous records and best times. Advertisements are often included. Martin Cardew is listed as a competitor at many meetings.
